HISTORY OF ALBANY STATE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1903, Albany State University continues to provide leadership in academic excellence, social change, and economic impact. A nationally top-ranked HBCU, ASU serves an increasingly diverse student body and community by offering a uniquely comprehensive array of programs, from associate to graduate degrees.

Joseph Winthrop Holley, the institution's founder and first president, established the Albany Bible and Manual Training Institute in Albany, Georgia. The new school was successful in its mission to provide religious and basic education, as well as teacher training to the local black population. In 1917, the state of Georgia began providing financial support to the school, granting it two-year status. The school added training in agriculture and was renamed the Georgia Normal and Agricultural College.

The institution eventually joined the University System of Georgia and, in 1943, was granted four-year status. Concentrating on teacher education and home economics, the school was again renamed, this time as Albany State College. Over the next few years, the College added majors in the humanities, social sciences, education, and health sciences.

After increasing the number of faculty with doctorate degrees by more than fifty percent, Albany State College began offering graduate degrees in 1981. With the growing success of the graduate programs, the Board of Regents, in 1996, approved the renaming of the institution to Albany State University. In the 21st century, the University continued to strengthen its mission, attracting nationally renowned scholars and researchers to its faculty and preparing students for leadership.

As ASU continued to grow, so did a newly established junior college in the Albany area. Founded in 1963, Albany Junior College provided students in Southwest Georgia and beyond access to higher education. When doors officially opened in 1966, 620 students enrolled in the institution. In 1987, the USG removed the word junior from all of its two-year institutions and the College became Darton College.

As part of its mission to serve its students and the region, Darton College committed to expanding its programs in nursing and the health sciences, expanding to 13 programs. As a result of this and other initiatives, such as the expansion of online programs, enrollment more than doubled after the year 2000. In this period, the campus facilities also grew, including the addition of a 427-seat theater and a massive physical education complex, among other improvements. In 2012, upon USG approval of the College's first four-year program, in nursing, the institution's name was changed to Darton State College.

On November 10, 2015, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia voted unanimously to begin the process of consolidating Albany State University and Darton State College. That same day, Dr. Arthur N. Dunning became ASU's permanent president.

The newly established university retains the name Albany State University and unifies the distinction, values, and missions of the two institutions. One of Georgia's diverse, educational gems, Albany State University continues a combined legacy of more than 100 years of excellence in teaching and learning. The University prepares students to be effective contributors to a globally diverse society, where knowledge and technology create opportunities for personal and professional success.

During this impressive growth and development, the University has been guided by the following presidents:

Joseph Winthrop Holley, D.D., LL.D. (1903-1943)

Aaron Brown, Ph.D., LL.D., Ed.D. (1943-1954)

William H. Dennis, LL.D. (1954-1965)

Thomas Miller Jenkins, J.D., LL.D. (1965-1969)

Charles L. Hayes, Ed.D. (1969-1980)

Billy C. Black, Ph.D. (1980-1996)

Portia Holmes Shields, Ph.D. (1996-2005)

Everette J. Freeman, Ed.D. (2005-2013)

Arthur N. Dunning, Ph.D. (2013-2018)

Marion Ross Fedrick, M.P.A. (2018-present)

MARION ROSS FEDRICK UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Marion Ross Fedrick was appointed as the 10th president of Albany State University on August 14, 2018, by the University System of Georgia Board of Regents. Fedrick previously served as interim president and interim executive vice president of the university. Spanning nearly thirty years of senior leadership experience, Fedrick has served in a variety of private and public sector roles. Her professional background includes system-level higher education administration, campus-level higher education administration, strategic planning, crisis management and strategic partnership engagement.

Committed to ensuring students realize their full potential, Fedrick believes every student deserves access to an excellent and affordable education. A three-time graduate of the University of Georgia, Fedrick holds a bachelor's degree in adult education, with a concentration in organizational development, and a master's degree in public administration, and a Ph.D. in higher education.

A hallmark of Fedrick's presidency is her focus on providing the ideal student experience. One which focuses on preparing students for professional careers while ensuring the entirety of the student's wellbeing is cared for. Since 2018 President Fedrick has used her commitment towards achieving excellence to drive new initiatives including a redesign of the institution's academic colleges, approval of the University System of Georgia's first nexus degrees, and the design and implementation of the university's integrated student success model. As a result of her laser focus on this ideal, the University has achieved a sixteen percent increase in retention, and a six percent increase in student enrollment. As a champion for student wellness, Fedrick has expanded access and opportunities for ASU students by entering into partnerships that increase the available campus-wide student resources.

Due to her widely known commitment to addressing student wellness, Fedrick is highly sought after to contribute to statewide initiatives including the University System of Georgia's (USG) Mental Health Task Force, and Georgia's COVID-19 Health Equity Council. Her leadership on the Health Equity Council has helped to increase the effectiveness of the Georgia Department of Public Health's statewide outreach to communities most affected by COVID-19, and to ensure the equitable distribution and administration of the COVID-19 vaccination.

In demonstration of her commitment to student success, racial and social equity, and the power of community, Fedrick has been a spokesperson for access, equity, and fairness. The intersection of her vision, passion, and broad leadership capabilities have placed Fedrick in key leadership roles throughout her career. Serving as the USG vice chancellor of human resources, Fedrick has led strategic initiatives relating to effective university administration, leadership development and all human resources planning efforts. She has also served at Clark Atlanta University, Emory University Hospitals, State of Georgia's Office of State Personnel Administration, AT&T, and the former BellSouth Corporation.

Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and raised in Georgia, she and her husband, Horace, who is a 34-year law enforcement veteran, have one daughter, Sarah.

TONY DUCKWORTH DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Tony Duckworth was appointed as Albany State University Director of Athletics ~ Chief Athletics Administrator on November 18, 2019. Duckworth reports directly to ASU's President and is a member of the President's Cabinet. Following athletics being suspended during COVID-19, Duckworth's first full year of athletics enjoyed ASU hosting a 2021 NCAA Division II playoff football game, winning the SIAC football championship and finishing third of fifteen in the SIAC Commissioner's Cup. Duckworth was appointed to the NCAA Division II Nominating Committee in September 2021.

Prior to his appointment, Duckworth served as Director of Athletics ~ Chief Athletics Officer at Northeastern State University (NSU) in Tahlequah, Oklahoma between 2011 - 2019. His teams won 13 MIAA championships and had 35 championship or runner-up conference finishes. Duckworth's teams also enjoyed 32 NCAA playoff appearances during his eight-and-a-half-year tenure at Northeastern State University. He was a member of the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Committee during 2018 – 2019. Duckworth led multiple capital improvements at NSU, including the $18 million event center, a turf and video board replacement and a stadium sports medicine center and locker room renovation.

Prior to NSU, Duckworth was Director of Athletics at NCAA Division II Maryville University – St. Louis beginning in 2007. He led Maryville through a significant transition as the university reclassified from Division III to Division II between 2008 - 2011. Duckworth also led Maryville's application, presentations and admission into the Great Lakes Valley Conference in October 2008.

Prior to becoming a director of athletics, Duckworth was a head men's basketball coach for ten seasons. Between 2001 – 2007 he had the 2nd most wins in Huntingdon College history which included his team winning both the 2006 Great South Athletic Conference Regular Season and Tournament Championships, and Duckworth was named 2006 GSAC Coach of the Year. The 20 – 7 season (2006-2007) marked the best winning percentage and most wins in 41 years while finishing 1st in NCAA Division III in Defensive FG% (35.4%) which at the time ranked 1st All-Time in NCAA Division III history. Duckworth led the Belhaven College between 1997 – 2001 while being one of the youngest four-year college head coaches in the nation when he took over the program at the age of 28. His Belhaven squad made the 2001 NAIA Division II National Tournament during his 4th season. During his last two seasons, Duckworth led the program to 25 consecutive weeks of being nationally ranked while winning 37 games over that span. He also left the Belhaven program as the 2nd winningest coach in school history after just 4 seasons

Duckworth is married to Amy Coverdell of Collinsville, Illinois. The couple has three sons: Chaney, Evan and Cole.

GABE GIARDINA HEAD COACH

In four seasons as the head coach of the Albany State Golden Rams Coach Gabe Giardina achieved a record of 30-14. Won the 2021 SIAC Conference championship, won the 2021 SIAC coach of the year and claimed three straight SIAC Eastern Division titles. The Rams went 10-1 in the 2021 regular season and earned a #4 Regional Ranking in region 2 and an NCAA Playoff birth. Coach G has had 22 ALL SIAC Selections over those four seasons, with seven coming in 2021. In 2021 the Dirty Blue defense was the number one scoring defense and total defense in all of division 2 football. In fact no one across any division of college football allowed less points than the 6.8 points per game than the Dirty Blue defense allowed. The defense also pitched 7 defensive shut outs. At the end of the season junior Linebacker Stephan Pierre was chosen as the SIAC Conference player of the year and the overall HBCU Defensive Player of the year in Division 2.

As a result of such an outstanding season Giardina was selected by HBCU Legacy Bowl founders Doug Williams and Shack Harris to be a Co-Head Coach of the Eddie Robinson Team in the 2022 Legacy Bowl all star game in New Orleans. Going into the 2022 season Albany State has 13 pre-season SIAC honorees, including preseason conference offensive player of the year Dionte Bonneau. Coach G has also seen the program grow off the field as the team has on two different occasions lead the athletic department in volunteer hours. Coach G has also seen great success in the class room with 10 Golden Rams in the fall of 2022 already in graduate school while finishing their playing careers at Albany State.

Under Giardina, 15 players have garnered All-SIAC honors since 2017, while kicker Gabriel Ballinas was named All-American in 2019.

Coach G came to Albany State after the most successful four year run in the history of Charleston Southern University football. As the offensive Coordinator at Charleston Southern, he was a part of a staff that amassed 35 wins, two Big South Conference championships and two FCS playoff bids over a four year span. The Bucs also gained national prominence by playing in the FCS Kickoff Classic against North Dakota State on ESPN and advanced to the third round of the playoffs vs Jacksonville State which was featured on ESPN2 in 2015.

In 2016, CSU repeated as Big South champion and earned a spot in the FCS Playoffs for the second straight year. Giardina's offense was played an integral as the Bucs led nation in yards per play on offense, averaging over 6.7 yards per play. They led the Big South in yards per rush (6.0) and ranked sixth nationally in rushing offense (266.5). CSU posted six outings of 30+ points and four performances of 500+ yards on offense. Giardina's offensive line was anchored by senior left tackle Erik Austell who wrapped his career with All-American honors from the Associated Press, the American Football Coaches Association and STATS FCS. Austell is currently a member of the Houston Texans

In addition to Austell, four other CSU offensive players earned All-Big South honors. They included offensive Guard Frank Cirone, running back Mike Holloway, who led the nation in yards per carry, and freshman wide receiver Kameron Brown, who topped the country in yards per catch.

Giardina's offense helped power CSU to an outright Big South Conference championship and the program's first-ever FCS playoff bid in 2015, a 10-3 record as well as a top 12 national ranking.

Giardina's offense thrived on an identity of running the football and clock management as CSU capped the season ranked 10th nationally in average time of possession, and 19th in rushing yardage. The trio of Darius Hammond, Mike Holloway and Ben Robinson powered the Bucs' running game. CSU also developed more balance behind second team All-Big South quarterback Austin Brown and a group of receivers led by fellow all-league selection Nathan Perera. CSU scored 30 or more points eight times, and went over the 40-point mark twice.

During the 2014 season, the Bucs led the country in time of possession for a second straight year, and ranked 16th in rushing offense at over 227 yards per game. CSU senior Christian Reyes posted another banner season and became the program's all-time leading rusher in just two seasons. Sophomores Mike Holloway and Ben Robinson enjoyed excellent campaigns as well, with Holloway's 100-plus yard performance in a near upset of Vanderbilt highlighting his year. UAB transfer Austin Brown emerged as the starting quarterback and played well in piloting an offense anchored in part by All-Big South selection, offensive guard, Clayton Truitt.

Giardina oversaw a Charleston Southern offense that helped the Bucs develop an identity during a historic 10-3 season in 2013. CSU led the country with an average time of possession of 33:44 behind a rushing attack which ranked 17th nationally at nearly 233 yards a game. Junior running back Christian Reyes served as the Bucs' workhorse, shattering the school's single-season rushing mark to finish with 1,254 yards. Giardina mentored a mostly young offensive line that gelled quickly and paved the way for Reyes and freshmen Ben Robinson and Holloway to turn in solid campaigns. The offensive line also continued to produce while playing with three different starting quarterbacks, including a pair of freshmen in Danny Croghan III and Kyle Copeland. Croghan went on to earn Big South Offensive Freshman of the Year honors.

Giardina returned to Charleston Southern after serving as Jamey Chadwell's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Delta State in 2012. He was also part of former Bucs' head coach Jay Mills' staff at CSU before leaving following the 2011 season to join Chadwell at DSU.

Offensively, Giardina guided the Statesmen to 377 yards and 24 points per game in 2012. DSU wide receiver Lavon Downs was named first team All-Gulf South and First Team All-Region in last season.

Coach G was the special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Charleston Southern from 2008-11. In his four seasons with the Bucs, CSU blocked six punts, had four kickoff returns for touchdowns and three punt returns TDs. His kickoff coverage teams ranked second in the Big South for three years and in led the Big South in net punting in 2011.

During his time at CSU, he coached six different players to All-Big South honors - Charles James and Antwan Ivey as punt returners, John Pagila as a placekicker, Andrew McKain and Mike Chocholousek as long snappers and Gerald Stephenson, who was an All-American kick returner in 2010. In 2008, Stephenson set an NCAA record for most kickoff return yards in a game, with 255, against Wofford.

In 2010, Giardina was promoted to assistant head coach by Mills. Giardina running back DeMarcus Moon, who is fifth in school history with 1,349 yards rushing and 4.5 yards per carry. In 2009, Giardina's backfield rushed for the second most yards in school history, culminating with a 145-yard performance by Antwan Ivey in a win against Coastal Carolina.

Giardina worked as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Alabama, from '05-'07. In 2005 he worked with special teams and saw return specialist Tyrone Prothro earn All-SEC honors, while kicker Jamie Christensen hit game-winning field goals against Ole Miss, Tennessee, and in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech.

In 2006, Giardina transitioned to the offensive line and over the next two seasons, saw linemen Antwan Caldwell and Andre Smith make first team All-SEC. Smith was the sixth overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, while Caldwell was selected in the third round by the Houston Texans.

During his time at Alabama, Giardina worked for both Mike Shula and current Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban. Giardina also played for the Crimson Tide from 2000 until 2003. He appeared in nine games and earned Academic All-SEC honors in 2003.

Giardina is married to the former Wimberly Edwards from Greenville, Ala. She is a board certified Music Therapist and together they have three sons, Frank Foster , DeAra and Whitt.

ADAM HOLLIFIELD

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Adam Hollifield begins his third season as the offensive line coach at Albany State. Hollifield comes to ASU after two seasons as a graduate assistant at Texas State University. At TXST, he worked with both the offensive and defensive lines.

Hollifield went to Texas State after serving three seasons as an offensive line coach at Birmingham Southern College. He went to Birmingham Southern in 2012 after a stint as the defensive line graduate assistant coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham in 2011 after working as the Blazers' strength and conditioning graduate assistant in 2010-11 and as the offensive line student assistant in 2009.

Hollifield also was the recruiting coordinator at BSC and in charge of the region of South Alabama and the panhandle of Florida.

A native of Hoover, Ala., Hollifield started five games on UAB's offensive line before suffering a season-ending injury in both 2007 and 2008. He earned a scholarship after serving as an offensive lineman on the scout team in 2006 and a walk-on redshirt in 2005. He also was a two-time member of the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

JEREMY ATWELL

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jeremy Atwell enters year one at ASU and will serve as Defensive Coordinator and coach the linebackers.

Prior to arriving in Albany, Atwell spent the past two seasons as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico Highlands University. In the 2021 season Atwell directed a unit that was 4th nationally in interceptions by and 14th nationally in turnovers gained. Before joining the staff at New Mexico Highlands, he spent 6 seasons in the high school ranks.

In his second stint with the program, Atwell spent three seasons as assistant head coach, five as defensive coordinator, and eight overall with the Nicholls State football staff. During his tenure at Nicholls, he coached two NFL draft picks, three FCS All Americans, and five first-team all-conference selections. In 2012, under Atwell's tutelage, linebacker Jordan Piper emerged as one of the top tackler's in the NCAA, racking up a Southland best 9.7 per game. At UCA, Piper tied the single-game program record of 23 tackles, which was set in 1977. In 2006, Atwell was a part of defense that ranked 19th nationally in total defense and in 2007 led the Southland Conference in interceptions.

Atwell, who spent four years as the defensive coordinator at Thibodaux High School, first joined the Nicholls staff as an assistant coach in 2001.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Atwell wrapped up a distinguished playing career at Southeast Missouri State in 1999 as he was named first-team All-Ohio Valley as a linebacker, leading the OVC in both tackles and tackles for a loss.

Atwell arrived in Cape Girardeau in January of 1998 after spending two seasons at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in his home state. At NEO, Atwell earned second-team all-conference accolades as a linebacker after making the move from strong safety his freshman season.

After winding up his playing career, Atwell spent a year working with the SEMO program as a student coach where he assisted with coaching the Redhawks secondary.

Atwell and his wife, the former Cindy Adams, have two sons, Christian and Cameron, and a daughter, Callie.

MICHAEL WELCH DEFENSIVE LINE

In March 2022, Albany State University head football coach Gabe Giardina announced the hiring of Michael Welch, who will join the staff as the Defensive Line Coach.

Welch joins the Golden Rams after one season at Lyon College. Welch developed and coached 2 all-conference defensive lineman. Welch also had a prior four-season stint at Coahoma Community College. While at Coahoma, Welch served as the Defensive Coordinator, Defensive Line Coach and Head Sports Performance Coach. Welch developed and coached 17 all-conference defensive players, including three that have been signed by NFL teams. Coahoma was top 10 in the country for turnovers (2016 and 2019), tackles for loss and sacks (2017 and 2019).

Prior to his stop at Coahoma, Welch was the Lead Strength Assistant at Iowa State University following a year at Woodward Academy as, Defensive Line Coach/Run Game Coordinator and Strength Coach.

Welch also had coaching stops at Booker T. Washington and the University of William Penn.

CHARLIE SKALASKI
QUARTERBACKS COACH, PASSING GAME
& RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Charlie Skalaski (Skuh-LA-Skee) IV enters his first season at Albany State after being hired to serve as the Passing Game Coordinator, Quarterbacks Coach and Recruiting Coordinator.

Skalaski joins the Golden Rams with fourteen seasons of coaching experience, including four at the high school level, and ten years at the college level. In those seasons, Skalaski has been a part of one State Championship, five conference championships, two trips to the Division I FCS playoffs and one NCAA National Championship.

Prior to Albany, Skalaski spent the 2021 season at FCS member Robert Morris University (PA) where he coached the Colonial's Wide Receivers.

Before arriving in Pittsburgh, Skalaski spent 3 years (2 seasons due to CoVid-19) serving as the Offensive Coordinator, Quarterbacks Coach and Director of Football Operations at The Apprentice School in Newport News, VA. In those two seasons, the Builders amassed a 15-7 record, eclipsing their win total from the previous 6 seasons combined, and averaged 36.3 points per game. This success also qualified the Builders for back-to-back post-season opportunities, a first in program history.

Skalaski came to Newport News from Charleston Southern University (FCS) in Charleston, SC. After serving in a variety of capacities over his two years at CSU, Skalaski coached the Tight Ends for the 2017 season, after assisting with the Offensive Line and Quarterbacks through the Spring.

Skalaski joined Jamey Chadwell's staff in 2016 initially coaching the cornerbacks under former defensive coordinator Chad Staggs. The Bucs defense paved the way for a second straight Big South title and FCS playoff berth. With Skalaski's help, cornerback Troy McGowens earned All-Big South honors for the third straight year.

Skalaski spent the 2015 season at Gettysburg College (DIII) in Pennsylvania, serving as wide receivers and wing backs coach. He helped Gettysburg's spread option offense lead the team to a 7-3 overall record and a 6-3 mark in conference play.

Prior to Gettysburg, Skalaski spent three seasons in various capacities on the staff at Liberty University (FBS). He was a defensive quality control coach under Flames' defensive coordinator Robert Wimberly during his final two years in Lynchburg, learning under the 2014 AFCA FCS Assistant Coach of the Year. As an undergraduate at Liberty, Skalaski worked as a student assistant primarily aiding with the offense and special teams. He worked under former Liberty OC and Carolina Panther WR's coach Joe Dailey.

Before joining the Liberty staff, Skalaski served as an assistant coach at his Alma Mater, Liberty Christian Academy (Lynchburg, VA). During his four years assisting at LCA, Skalaski served in a multitude of roles ranging from Junior Varsity Offensive Coordinator to Varsity Assistant Offensive Coordinator and Junior Varsity Head Coach.

Skalaski earned his bachelor's degree in Sport Management from Liberty in 2013. He, his wife Kettie and daughter Ellie reside in Albany.

JALEN BUSH

DEFENSIVE ANALYST / CORNERBACKS

Jalen Bush is an Albany, Ga native. Bush is entering his second season as a defensive assistant coach for the Golden Rams. He's also a proud alumnus of the Albany State University. After starting his football career at Savannah State, Bush transferred to Albany State and was a standout cornerback for the Dirty Blue defense from 2017-2019. In 2019, Bush led the Dirty Blue defense to be number two passing defense in the nation. Bush plans to make an even bigger impact on his players with his leadership skills that he accesses and help his players develop discipline in day to day life style not only on the field, but in life as well.

SAMUEL (DILLON) SHARP ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE COACH / VIDEO COORDINATOR

“Samuel (Dillon) Sharp enters his first season at Albany State as the Bandits and Assistant Defensive Line Coach as well as the Video Coordinator.

Prior to Albany State, Sharp spent 2 seasons as a Defensive Graduate Assistant at New Mexico Highlands University working with the Defensive Backs and Linebackers respectively. He assisted a defense that was 4th nationally in interceptions and 14th nationally in turnovers gained in 2021.

Sharp spent the 2019 season at FBS member Liberty University (VA) as a Graduate Volunteer Assistant working with the Safeties. He assisted a team that won the first bowl game in school history in their inaugural season as a full member in the FBS.

Prior to Liberty, he spent 4 seasons coaching at Shiloh Christian High School (AR) coaching Quarterbacks and Wide Receivers.

A native of Dallas, Texas. He earned his bachelor’s degree in Psychology and Minor in Coaching from Pittsburg State University (KS). He was a walk-on quarterback for the Gorillas (2015-2016).”

The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) was founded in 1913 and today, more than 100 years later, the conference remains one of the nation's most viable forces in intercollegiate athletics.

On December 30, 1913, representatives of the following institutions met at Morehouse College to consider the regulations of intercollegiate athletics among black colleges in the southeast: Alabama State University, Atlanta University, Clark College, Fisk University, Jackson College, Morehouse College, Morris Brown College, Talladega College and Tuskegee Institute. The representatives formed a permanent organization (The Southeastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) which has had a continuous history to the present. In 1929, they changed the name of this organization to The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Two institutions have held continuous membership in the conference: Clark College (now Clark Atlanta University) and Tuskegee University. Other institutions which have held membership are Alabama A&M University, Allen University, Benedict College, Bethune-Cookman University, Edward Waters College, Fisk University, Florida A&M University, Jackson State University, Knoxville College, Morris Brown College, Rust College, Savannah State University, South Carolina State University, Tennessee State University and Xavier University. In 2019-2020 season, the league will add Savannah State University as their fourteenth official member.

The present membership is composed of fourteen different institutions in six states (Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Ohio, South Carolina and Tennessee): Albany State University, Benedict College, Central State University, Clark Atlanta University, Fort Valley State University, Kentucky State University, Lane College, LeMoyne-Owen College, Miles College, Morehouse College, Paine College, Spring Hill College, and Tuskegee University.

The SIAC is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and participates on the Division II level. Annually, the SIAC sponsors seven men's championships (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, outdoor track & field and tennis) and six women's championships (basketball, cross country, outdoor track & field, softball, tennis and volleyball).

As the second oldest historically black college and university athletic conference, the SIAC has one of the most storied histories in all of the NCAA. Many of the conference's former athletes and coaches have transcended to larger-than-life characters that continue to be monumental in the world of sports. Furthermore, the chronicles of many SIAC programs have been vital to the foundation of American society.

SIAC schools are known for being staunch competitors, where many have flourished to the realms of national and global celebrity. As a whole, the conference has staked its claim to more than 50 team and individual national championships. In 1978, Florida A&M became the first black college to win a NCAA Football National Championship on any level when they defeat Massachusetts, 35-28, in the inaugural NCAA I-AA Championship Game.

The SIAC has a rich history on the gridiron, as some of the biggest names in college and professional sports began their careers in the conference. Headlining the list are Pro Football Hall of Famers "Bullet" Bob Hayes (Florida A&M), David "Deacon" Jones (South Carolina State), Larry Little (Bethune-Cookman), Shannon Sharpe (Savannah State), John Stallworth (Alabama A&M) and Rayfield Wright (Fort Valley State). Former Tuskegee legend Ben Stevenson, legendary Florida A&M football coach Jake Gaither, Fort Valley State's all-time winningest head football coach Douglass Porter, Florida A&M's Tyrone McGriff and Willie "Gallopin' Gal" Gailmore are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Fort Valley State alums Greg Lloyd, a former All-Pro for the Pittsburgh Steelers and recent inductee into the SIAC Hall of Fame, along with Tyrone Poole, a two-time Super Bowl Champion for the New England Patriots, are members of the NCAA Division II Football Hall of Fame.

Former Morehouse All-SIAC quarterback Jerome Boger has established himself as a top tier NFL official, recently serving as the head official for Superbowl XLVII between the Baltimore Ravens and San Francisco 49ers. Playing a key role in that same contest was Lane alum and current Ravens wide receiver/kick returner Jacoby Jones, who scored two touchdowns in the game. Jones highlights an impressive roster of former SIAC student-athletes playing in the league. Overall, the conference has produced more than 300 NFL players.

The SIAC is also home to football coaching legends Alonzo "Jake" Gaither and Cleveland Leigh "Major" Abbott. Gaither posted a 203-36-4 record (.835) and guided Florida A&M to six black college national championships, coupled with 22 SIAC titles during his 25-year tenure as head coach. Cleve Abbott coached all sports at Tuskegee during his 32 years at the school from 1923-1955. During this time, he won 11 SIAC football championships and seven black college national championships. Abbott's teams were frontrunners in the conference during the 1920's, posting six undefeated seasons while winning 46 consecutive games. From 1936-56, Abbott coached track and field, winning 25 of the 36 national AAU Championships in which his Tigers teams participated.

The SIAC's renowned history extends to the hardwood, as two of the first four blacks selected to play in the NBA were from the conference. Some of the former stars, who have enjoyed success in the NBA include: Florida A&M's Nate "Sweetwater" Clifton and Clemon Johnson, in addition to the Jones brothers - Caldwell, Charles, Major and Wilbert of Albany State. The late Ed Adams was a member of the 1934 Tuskegee squad that won the inaugural SIAC basketball tournament championship. Adams would later become a coach, spending 23 seasons leading Tuskegee to 645 wins, posting an .811 winning percentage while becoming the first black basketball coach to win 500 games. Former Temple University head coach John Chaney began his basketball career at Bethune-Cookman, where he scored more than 3,500 points and led the Wildcats to an SIAC Championship in the late 1950's. Long-time Fort Valley State women's basketball head coach Lonnie Bartley became the all-time winningest black college women's basketball coach in 2012 after 28 seasons at the helm. Both Chaney and Bartley are 2014 SIAC Hall of Fame inductees.

The SIAC has also made significant footprints on a global scale in track and field. In 1948, Alice Coachman became the first black woman to win a gold medal as she captured the gold in the high jump at the London Games. At the Barcelona Olympics in 1992, Tuskegee graduate Barbara Jacket, was an Olympic coach with the track and field team. In 1996, Benedict College graduate Dr. Leroy T. Walker became the first African-American appointed President of the United States Olympic committee. Other Olympic notables are: Catherine Hardy of Fort Valley State (1st place in the 400 meter relay in 1952); Mildred McDaniel of Tuskegee (1st place in the high jump in 1956); Bob Hayes of Florida A&M (1st place in the 100 meter dash in 1964); Jearl Miles-Clark of Alabama A&M (1st Place 4x400 meter in 1996 and 2000), Dannette Young (1st place in the 400 meter relay in 1998) and Edwin Moses of Morehouse (1st place in the 400 meter hurdles in 1976 and 1984) who went 10 years without a loss in hurdle competition.

One of the greatest tennis players of All-Time, Althea Gibson of Florida A&M, competed in the SIAC. In 1957, Gibson became the first black to win a singles title at Wimbledon and is now a member of the National Tennis Hall of Fame.

The conference has also achieved a level of success in baseball, which includes a World Series MVP. Donn Clendenon, an alumnus of Morehouse, was named the MVP of the 1969 World Series as a member of the New York Mets. Florida A&M's Andre Dawson, formerly of the Montreal Expos and Chicago Cubs, became the first player from the conference inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Both Clendenon and Dawson are 2014 SIAC Hall of Fame inductees. Others making history in baseball include Bill Lucas, another alumni of Florida A&M, who became MLB's first black general manager with the Atlanta Braves in 1978 after his playing career.

The SIAC concluded a banner year in 1993 as member institutions competed for NCAA Division II Championships in eight different sports. Albany State made its first trip to the playoffs after posting an 11-0 season; Alabama A&M's women's outdoor track and field team won their second consecutive National Championship, while their men's outdoor team finished 10th in the nation; A&M's men's and women's indoor track and field team both finished in the top five in the country while their cross country team won the southeastern regional title and finished eighth at nationals; A&M's men's and women's basketball squads each made the playoff appearances.

The SIAC is also home to both the longest running rivalry and the winningest team in black college football. Morehouse and Tuskegee have met 117 times since their inaugural contest in 1902. Tuskegee's football program has recorded more than 650 victories - first among Historically Black Colleges and Universities

All SIAC member institutions have a rich athletic history. They rely heavily on past leadership to help them face today's challenges as they continue their quest to excel in collegiate athletics.
